Terms and Conditions of SSMAF Fellowship

- SSMAF reserves the right to withdraw the award granted to the awardee at any time if it is found that the awardee has benefited from a similar program, submitted fraudulent documents, or taken the test without prior consultation with their mentor.
- By accepting the SSMAF fellowship and choosing to join the program, you are confirming that you will not apply for any similar programs or receive benefits from similar programs during the fellowship period. You should be aware that if you breach this condition, SSMAF reserves the right to revoke the awarded fellowship at any time. Additionally, if you have already received the fellowship amount, you are obligated to return it to the SSMAF within 2 weeks.
- The university selected by the student must accept IELTS/TOEFL as part of their admission process.
- The fellowship program will reimburse full or a portion of the IELTS/TOEFL fee, ranging from 50% to 100%, depending on the availability of funds. However, this reimbursement does not cover supplementary costs, such as travel, accommodation, etc.
- Fellowship Duration: The fellowship benefits will be applicable to the eligible recipient for a period of approximately 1.5 years starting from the date of the announcement of results. The specific end date will be specified in the award letter.
- The awardee must meet the overall and individual band score limits. The lower set limit for the IELTS score is at least 6.5, with no individual band score lower than 6.0 or a TOEFL score of at least 83, with no section less than 20.
- Reimbursement will exclusively be processed via a bank transfer to the account held by the awardee.
- To qualify for reimbursement, the awardee must seek approval from their mentor before taking the test and submit the official IELTS/TOEFL scorecard after the test.
- The awardee is not eligible for reimbursement if they have already received the test scores prior to the start date of the program.
- SSMAF reserves the right to publicly share the awardee's profile, test scores, and admission offer after the awardee has been admitted without requiring explicit consent from the awardee.
- If the awardee decides to cancel their exam, they will not qualify for reimbursement.
- If the test center does not allow the awardee to enter the test center due to insufficient documents, name mismatches, or other reasons, the candidate will not be eligible for reimbursement from this program.
- SSMAF holds the right to modify or terminate the program at any time without prior notice.
- Any changes to the terms and conditions will be updated on the SSMAF website.
